PAUL WILLIAM WILHELM - COMMITTED TO DISTRICT COURT

Paul William Wilhelm has been committed to the February sittings of the Perth District Court by Magistrate Wheeler in the Perth Court of Petty Sessions on 15 Australian Securities and Investments Commission charges of fraud.

ASIC alleges that between 2 July 1993 and 8 March 1994, Mr Wilhelm fraudulently obtained $432,000 from people in relation to a sham investment scheme when ASIC alleges Mr Wilhelm held himself out to be an investment adviser.

Mr Wilhelm was also committed to stand trial on one charge of attempting to induce a witness to give false testimony before an ASIC examination on or before 8 June 1995.

ASIC has alleged Mr Wilhelm used the majority of the money he obtained for his own purposes.

The charges are being prosecuted by the Commonwealth Director of Public Prosecutions
