MILAN TUSEK COMMITTED TO TRIAL

Milan Izidor Tusek was today committed to stand trial in the Brisbane District Court on six charges under the Bankruptcy Act arising from a joint investigation by the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) and the Australian Federal Police.

It is alleged that between June 1995 and October 1996 Mr Tusek obtained a total of $108 385 from four creditors without disclosing that he was an undischarged bankrupt.

Mr Tusek was released on his own undertaking to appear before the Brisbane District Court on 27 April 1999.
